Description

Originally from the South West of France, this elegant Louis XIII period double-body walnut piece of furniture has reached us in very good condition. A high-quality piece of furniture, it opens with two doors and three drawers in the lower part and two doors and two drawers in the upper part. With its highly embossed star-shaped paneled doors, its sides decorated with diamonds and its heavily molded drawers, we are in the presence of a true piece of 17th century cabinetmaking.
