Description

Round shaped cache pot and its support (plate) in polychrome earthenware, Minton Manufacture around 1870, with rotating decoration of Hibiscus flowers?, it rests on three small decorated feet. The pieces from this manufacture are often of high decorative quality, with bright colors, "original" subjects and a great synthesis of styles in a "happy" mixture! The cache pot presented here is a good example, very decorative, good condition, however, note a small crack on the rim. The price taking into account .....
