Description

Beautiful globe from the famous German company Columbus, Jubileum model, produced for the company's fiftieth anniversary (1909-1959). The glass globe covered with paper segments is supported by two elegant arms in deco' style, and is fixed on a wooden base that contains a large geographical atlas. The geographical maps of the whole world are still printed in the traditional style and are in perfect condition. The set is completed by a photo of the owner contemplating the same globe in his office (without name).
