velvet, fringes and edges in perfect condition.

This magnificent Persian rug follows the criteria of ancient Persian decorations, knotted with great finesse and superb quality of kerk wool.

Around 1980, we can hardly imagine the immense work to knot such a marvel.

The quality of these pieces is not to be demonstrated, the work is fine, precise and durable over time.

The materials used are of the highest quality: the fine and soft kerk wool, taken at the neck and under the belly of the lambs (first shearing) makes up the velvet knotted on a fine cotton for the weft.

This carpet is clean, the wool is knotted admirably and finely tight as these carpets always are. It reveals to us nuances full of contrasts, very many colors, including many blues, red, chamois, black and ivory, cream

A medallion with an ivory field, four ivory spandrels decorated with very elaborate and large stylized flowers.

It is surrounded by a complex border grouping together branches and large stylized flowers.

Traditional wool carpet, comfortable and of great passage.

The nuances underline this learned floral design in the great tradition of Persian art. Persian art that is also found in Mughal art, inspired by the miniatures of the Tabriz school, then capital of the Persian Empire.

over time.
