

Glass Postilion Goblet, Travel Glass Or For The Sick - Early 19th Century Glassware

280 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 7,6 cm

Height : 8,6 cm

Description

Blown glass postilion cup, travel glass or for bedridden patients.
Early 19th century glassware. Thick glassware cup, thick bottom, fitted with a hot-applied spout, partially closed, covered in a concave shape (in the shape of a slight funnel) to allow drinking while traveling or bedridden.
Central hole to allow filling.
Very good condition.
Dimensions: 8.6 cm high (8.8 cm at the spout) x
7.6 cm in diameter (9.2 cm wide at the spout)

Note: a similar glass can be seen at the Postal Museum.

Dealer

Les Couloirs du Temps - Samuel Collin
Folk Art and Popular Traditions, Regionalism, Curiosity
Tel : 06 81 53 21 70
Mobile : 06 70 45 88 65

Impasse des Ventes
Mézières-en-Drouais 28500