Description

This set consists of a clock stamped Vincenti & Cie in a violin shape surrounded by chiseled gilt bronze rods decorated with shells, scrolls, flowers and acanthus leaves. When the clock is deadened, two acanthus leaves intertwine. The circular dial in white enamel is graduated with Roman numerals for the hours and Arabic numerals for the minutes. This clock is accompanied by two candelabra with two scrolled light arms supporting delicately crafted bobèches and chalices. Each body, also in painted wood, imitation tortoiseshell, is potbellied with sharp corners. These candelabra rest on identical bases in gilt bronze with scrolled feet. This set will arouse interest for the contrast of its warm tones
