Description

This artistic vase by Flavio Poli is much more than a simple decorative object. It is a work of art that encapsulates the very essence of 20th-century Murano glassmaking. The sommerso technique, of which Poli was an undisputed master, allows for the unveiling of layers of shades and colors with unparalleled depth. Each layer of overlapping glass creates visual magic, bringing a dimension of brightness and contrast that inevitably captures the attention. The choice of colors for this vase - aquamarine green and yellow - is not banal. Green recalls clear and pure water, symbolizing nature and serenity, while yellow adds a touch of warmth and light. This subtle yet effective combination demonstrates Poli's keen sense of color and harmony, transforming the vase into a true visual
