PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Victorian Edinburgh Crystal 'thistle' Decanter Set, 2 Cordial Glasses, Silver Plated Stand

300 EUR

Signature : William Mammatt & Sons

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Length : 12 cm

Width : 17.5 cm

Diameter : 8 cm

Height : 21 cm

Description

Antique Victorian Edinburgh crystal 'Thistle' liqueur decanter set with two sherry / cordial glasses and a silver plated stand. The decanter has an inverted thistle form, slice-cut neck with hob nail cutting on the shoulder, spiral facet cut stopper and a star cut base.

The liqueur glasses are etched with a thistle design to flaring bowls that rest on slice cut stems above low conical radial undercut feet. The bulbous bases of the bowls are faceted to resemble a thistle bract, while the fluted middles resembles an unopened flower.

The stand has a fluted openwork handle with ball decoration and is engraved with an ornate flowering thistle design; the stand rests on four

Dealer

Gillers Antiques

Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor

Mobile : +44 (0) 7341 404636

Buntingford SG9 0PY

cast thistle feet.

Stand made by William Mammatt & Sons, Sheffield, c. 1890's.

757 g
stand - 26 cm tall, 12 x 17.5 cm across the base glass - 8 cm tall, 4.5 cm across the top decanter 8 cm across the base, 16 cm tall without stopper, 21 cm tall with stopper

Very good antique condition. Wear to silvering on the stand; stopper has repairs to neck, large sideways chip to top and small chip to base; fleabites to base of decanter.