

Early 19th Century Anglo-indian Carved Sandalwood Cigarette Holder, Cheroot Dispensing Box

220 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 11 cm

Width : 15 cm

Height : 11 cm

Description

Exquisite and rare, this early 19th century folding wooden cigarette box showcases intricate carvings, originating from Anglo Indian Kashmiri craftsmanship in Srinagar.

The body is adorned with densely carved leaf patterns typical of Kashmiri artistry. The interior reveals three separate hinged compartments designed to hold a total of 48 cigarettes while the exterior is decorated with detailed flora and fauna.

844 g

11 cm tall

11 cm wide

15 cm long

Dealer

Gillers Antiques

Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor

Mobile : +44 7738009924

Buntingford SG9 0PY

Excellent antique condition. Small gaps between border corners, some wear to wood.