

Art Nouveau Cobalt Blue Amphora Shaped Porcelain Pitcher / Ewer By Barkers And Kent, Foley

150 EUR

Signature : Barkers and Kent

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Width : 8 cm

Diameter : 5.5 cm

Height : 20.5 cm

Description

Lovely piece of late 19th-century Art Nouveau craftsmanship, this porcelain pitcher / ewer / vase embodies elegance and sophistication. Crafted in the 1890s, it boasts a stunning cobalt blue hue adorned with lavish gold accents, epitomizing the opulence of the era. Its graceful amphora shape, complemented by an S-shaped handle, exudes timeless charm. Adorned with a delicate floral design, this piece is a testament to the artistic intricacy of the Art Nouveau movement.

Made by Barkers and Kent, Foley of England, c. 1890's

226 g

20.5 cm tall

5.5 cm base diameter

Dealer

Gillers Antiques

Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor

Mobile : +44 7738009924

Buntingford SG9 0PY

8 cm across body

Good antique condition. Some wear to gilt;
repairs to handle in several places.