Description

Rare ornamental vase in cast iron and sheet iron, crater-shaped on a pedestal, it is decorated with a rich trim in chased and mercury-gilded bronze, with a motif of lion heads suspending a ring, a collar at the connection of the base. The quality of the bronzes is remarkable, it is probably a work of Ravrio. Empire period. Cast iron and gilded bronze vases are very rare and amateur pieces. Our piece is perfect to decorate as a central piece, a fireplace, a console, a pedestal table. Beautiful collector's item Good general condition, the cast iron and sheet metal have retained their original patina, with traces of corrosion. Very beautiful mercury gilding on the bronzes, perfectly preserved. Height 31.5cm
