Description

Louis XVI style mirror, late 19th-early 20th century, in painted and gilded wood with a frame bordered with pearls. This charming mirror is decorated with laurel leaf falls. It is topped with a pediment composed of an urn framed by two garlands of flowers in carved and gilded stucco. The whole rests on two small feet. The glass has small spots of oxidation distributed over the entire mirror, without affecting its aesthetics, thus giving it a lot of charm.
