Description

Beautiful folding pocket knife, all steel, two flats with light butts, opening on either side: a sharp saw, a penknife or feather sharpener (worn), and a straight blade, with partial mark of cutler; a small grafting knife with curved blade.

Everything works, no play, but iron did not like certain atmospheres, we see pitting, I do not have the tools to polish better.

Utility knife late 18th or early 19th, fairly good condition, a probably rare model.

Dimensions: 10cm x 2cm, weight: 105gr
