Description

"Bernard Vidal, 1944 - 2019, a painter of character, draws his inspiration from land and sea: his landscapes and still lifes with their touches and tawny hues transcribe the strength of his deep emotions. Imbued with the talent of their creator, they vibrate with sunshine and colors to which the soft and raw material of soft pastels brings ever-changing reliefs." Although he had been practicing painting for over thirty years, Bernard Vidal would not hold his first international exhibition until April 1992 in Paris at the Galerie Art and Art. Since that date, exhibitions have taken place in France, including several important ones in Paris and around the world: United States, Canada, Germany, Luxembourg, Taiwan, Singapore... Bernard Vidal's works are featured in numerous private
