Description

Vallauris, 1950s, very beautiful and large earthenware plate with a very colorful trompe-l'oeil decoration of two fish, a langoustine, a shell, seaweed and coral on a black background. This type of creation, very fashionable at the time, corresponds to the discovery of the Côte d'Azur by the general public thanks to great personalities from the cinema and the world of art. Thus, such an acquisition allowed everyone to leave with a little Mediterranean dream. The colors are sparkling and the representations of great realism.
Diameter 24 cm. The scale indicator on the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a brand known to all. Good condition.
No shock, no cracks, no missing parts.
