Description

Produced by the celebrated Japy Freres & Cie, this clock captures in great traditions of 18th-century Rococo design, with its playful curves and ornate details. The exquisite gilt bronze finish catches the light beautifully, giving it an air of elegance. This clock embodies everything we love about antiques: it's cute, it's stylish, and it offers a glimpse into a much more glamorous era. Imagine the stories it could tell if it could talk...
