Description

BOARD GAME called Awalé

Ivory Coast

First half of the 20th century

Wood and pigments

H. 15.5; W 55; D 25 cm

Wooden tray with two rows of six round cavities, centred with an anthropo-zoomorphic decoration: two faces seen from the front and pigmented with blue are carved on either side of a lizard.

Awalé is a strategy game played by two people using Caesalpinia crista seeds, the aim being to fill each of the twelve cups with four seeds. Our game has forty-one seeds, and it should have forty-eight.
