Description

Made of wrought iron, of very good quality, they are decorated with fleur-de-lys and a satin-finish molded-pressed glass bulb cover in the shape of a flame. Very beautiful work by Master ironworker Pongi in Alès. The bulb covers are old, made of thick glass of good quality, with a beautiful relief visible in the photos. They are electrified and have their original socket. Ideal for lighting a castle corridor or a chalet in the mountains!
