

Officer Firefighter Helmet Mle 1821.

1 390 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Brass

Description

France. July Monarchy. Firefighter officer's helmet. Entirely in brass.- The base of the bomb is bordered at the front and back by a band decorated with moldings in relief at the front and back. Movable visor stamped in relief with two crossed axes linked together by a ribbon framed by laurel branches. Neck cover encircled with a reed folded astride its outer edge. Crest with fins stamped with ten gadroons with a mask decorated with a flaming bomb, it is topped with a black horsehair caterpillar. Front plate in brass stamped with a Gallic rooster on a globe placed on a shield marked "devotion", framed by branches of vines and sheaves of wheat, with a ribbon bearing the inscription "SAPEURS POMPIERS DE GHAINTEY" on a background of a bundle of flags. Brass chin straps composed of two chin

Dealer

Le grenier du passé présent

Antiquité. Généraliste.

Tel : 0323700142

1 rue du Gué

Pavant 02310

straps with rosette: each chin strap is composed of a brass plate stamped with scalloped scales in relief, mounted on leather, round rosette stamped with gadroons in relief. Plume holder with square section decreasing towards the bottom with missing tightening screw. Posterior plume. Good general condition, missing inner cap.- This item is for immediate purchase, payable by Paypal, we also accept bank transfer or French check.- We refuse sales by telephone, the sale will be made only by Email or request via the Proantic messaging system.- We ensure careful shipping of our items, with insurance and tracking. Shipping costs by colissimo for Europe Union EUR25.