Description

Louis XV style sideboard with support height in violet wood, Chinese lacquer and brocatelle marble top. French work from the Faubourg Saint Antoine in Paris at the end of the 19th or the beginning of the 20th century. It opens with two doors richly decorated with Chinese lacquer with decoration of old Chinese scenes. The frame of the furniture is on solid oak, the sides and the front are veneered with violet wood. Very beautiful decoration of gilded bronze falls on the front on the uprights. This type of furniture was very fashionable in the 18th century. It is rare today to find them even in style and especially in a very good state of conservation. There are shelves inside the furniture to provide storage. Original key and lock. Height: 1m20 Width: 1m21 Profondeur: 45.5 cm For more information
