

Flemish School (xviii) - Dog Fight

1 100 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Description

- Oil on canvas. - In the tradition of great artists such as Snyders or De Vos, this painting masterfully combines a clear narrative sense with the naturalistic desire to push the representation of reality to the extreme. Two dogs, a greyhound that appears through the door of the canvas, and a spaniel appear a few moments before the duel, on the checkered floor typical of the Netherlands. In the upper right corner we see the exhibition of the products of the hunting operations: a francolin and a woodcock. Immediately below, fruits and vegetables come out of a basket. A painting of great decorative and artistic value. - Dimensions of the image without frame: 131 x 88 cm / 147 x 101 cm with magnificent old frame, probably the original. - It comes from a private collection of paintings in Brussels. - Good general condition.
