Description

Still life with helmet and antique objects, 19th century, signed

Superb 19th century painting depicting a still life with a warrior's helmet and various antique objects. This work, made with great precision and sensitivity, is signed lower left by the artist with a distinctive monogram. The dark color palette, accentuated by touches of gold, highlights the noble and historical character of the objects depicted. The painting is framed in a period wooden frame that emphasizes its beauty and adds an extra touch of authenticity. Ideal for collectors of old art or for those who wish to enrich their interior with a unique piece of great artistic and historical value.
