Description
-------------

Set of 3 transparent Murano glass wall lamps in stepped design by Albano Poli.

The objects are austere in appearance.

The stepped design is evident not only in the length but also in the depth of the lamps.

The square glass rods form the basis for the glass blocks arranged side by side and one above the other.

The cast glass rods are transparent and have a light structure. Viewed at a certain angle and light irradiation, the rods appear different in color, but in fact they are not.

Sophisticated design, which gives the objects a massive and strong appearance.

The clear glass makes them very easy to combine.

There are 2 sockets and a metal wall fixture in
