Description

We present to you a magnificent large onyx and bronze vase, dating from the late 19th century, representing the elegance and distinctive style of Art Nouveau. This exceptional vase, probably of French origin, embodies the refinement and organic aesthetic of this artistic period. Key Features: Quality Materials: This vase is made of onyx, a precious stone known for its beautiful veining and smooth texture, which brings a touch of luxury and sophistication. Bronze, used for the ornamental details, adds a rich and elegant contrast to the whole. Art Nouveau Design: True to the Art Nouveau style, this vase features flowing lines and natural forms, evoking the harmony between art and nature. The bronze details reflect the influence of flora and fauna, characteristic of the movement. Potentially
