Description

French school from the second half of the 19th century in the troubadour style very fashionable at the time by the painter of the genre Auguste-Alexandre Baudran. Delicious gallant scene which represents a young servant, her cat at her side, bringing a plate of apples to the master of the house. With a mischievous air, she sketches a slight smile as he takes her chin while looking at her. A great finesse of execution, very beautiful colors characterize the painting, typical of the artist's work. The panel in thick prepared cardboard bears the red stencil mark of a Parisian color merchant. Signed lower left "Baudran". In its original wooden channel frame with golden patina. Dimensions: 54 cm x 38 cm and 66 cm x 50 cm with the frame Very good condition. The frame has some normal marks of age. Please note
