Description

Bracelet from the Napoleon III period - 19th century. This is an opening bangle (articulated by a hinge) with an almost round shape. A 585/00 rose gold base (14 KT, hallmark ...) is decorated with an alignment of 19 silver cubes set with fine pearls in characteristic colors and orient. The materials, representative of this ancient period, are arranged on a jewel with a remarkably contemporary and refined aesthetic, whose design is marked by the rhythm of the silver cubes made by hand and mounted independently of each other. The square section of the rose gold bangle accentuates the cubic aesthetic of the whole. This bracelet is equipped with a discreet ratchet clasp decorated with a safety chain. Gross weight: 19.20 g Dimensions: internal measurements: 5.45 cm horizontally, 5.14 cm vertically Condition:
