Description

Modern Nepalese Art Deco rug.

This rug is largely inspired by the best traditions of Art Deco. It is characterized by an angular elegance that radiates from every inch with its silky wool that makes its pile very soft.

The raised grid design is well thought out, it is reflected on the lines of the fields, connected to each other while marking the space. The composition is maintained in sober and bold colors ranging from gold to caramel.

With a perfect texture and design, this mid-century modern rug blends well with both classic and modern interiors. It will quickly become the main element of your decoration!
