François Lespinasse reproduced p.44, Imprimerie Duchaussoy 1990 In 1905, Pinchon exhibited at the Salon d'Automne in Paris (the year of the cage aux fauves), and, from April 27 to May 13, he exhibited 24 paintings at the Legrip gallery. The critics were unanimously complimentary and there were many buyers. François Depeaux, who had already bought paintings from him, lent several to expand the exhibition. Several of his paintings were part of his donation to the Musée des Beaux-Arts in Rouen
