Description

Gilded and chiseled bronze bouillotte lamp with two light arms, Louis XVI style, 20th century.
Base consists of a cup in the shape of a "basket" openwork with guilloche chiseling.
The fluted shaft decorated with garlands, carrying two light arms richly decorated with foliage and scrolls which each support a hoe candlestick, is topped with a steel rod decorated with bread apples.
The whole is completed by a green painted sheet metal lampshade, sliding and adjustable in height.

Electrified lamp, in good working order.
Early 20th century.
The lampshade has a few small stains.
Good condition
