

Daisy Makeig-jones 'flying Hummingbirds' Lustre Bowl, Wedgwood, Circa 1915-1920

250 EUR

Signature : Daisy Makeig-Jones

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Description

This exquisite antique bowl, featuring a low stem and a hummingbird depicted within, was created by Daisy Makeig-Jones for Wedgwood between 1915 and 1920. The outer rim of the bowl depicts birds in flight against a shimmering blue background, while the inner rim also depicts birds in flight. This graceful little bowl is a stunning example of early 20th century ceramic artistry. The base of the bowl bears Wedgwood's mark - Portland Vase Mark with three stars below the vase - confirming the piece's authenticity. This unique bowl shape is rare, making it particularly attractive to collectors of Daisy Makeig-Jones' work. Susannah Margareta "Daisy" Makeig-Jones was an influential pottery designer for Wedgwood, best known for her Fairyland Lustre series, which began shortly after she

Dealer

Gillers Antiques

Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor

Mobile : +44 7738009924

Buntingford SG9 0PY

became a full-time designer in 1914. She masterfully combined underglaze variegation, overglaze iridescence, and intricate gilding to create an entirely new and captivating style. The Shine series, which includes this bowl (pattern Z5294), exemplifies Daisy's innovative use of color and design. Produced between 1914 and 1929, these early pieces have become highly sought after by collectors for their unique artistic qualities and limited production. Daisy's work, characterized by her vivid imagination and technical skill, is increasingly appreciated as an art treasure and a worthy investment.

Object dimensions: Diameter 9.5 cm, height 3.2 cm.

Condition: The bowl is in excellent antique condition, with some paint rubbing to the lower rim. The luster and gilding remain bright.

Please study the attached photographs carefully as they are an integral part of this description.

The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance. Please note that shipping costs include labor, packaging and postage.