Description

We present this sculpture in the style of the Middle Ages but which in reality is certainly a cast from the 19th century but which has a lot of effect and especially an effect that plunges us into the world of the Middle Ages. I am a fan of this Middle Ages period, moreover I kept this object for a very long time before deciding to try to part with it. An imposing size and it is plaster. Often when a museum such as the Louvre in the 19th century in particular, acquired a sculpture, such as the original of ours could have been, it had a cast made and gave it to the donor or to the people who parted with it for money. It is possible that our original sculpture is in some important museums. (E24) Ref. UB260
