

Louis XVI Secretary Stamped Nicolas Petit

7 800 EUR

Signature : Nicolas Petit (1732-1791)

Period : 18th century

Condition : Restauré par notre atelier

Material : Mahogany

Width : 0,98m

Height : 1,43m

Depth : 0,41m

Description

Louis XVI mahogany secretary stamped by the cabinetmaker Nicolas Petit with the jurande hallmark. This secretary with cut sides decorated with fluting opens with a flap covered in original black leather and with two doors in the lower part. A large drawer in the upper part under the top decorated with gray marble, six drawers line the interior. 18th century period. Locks and clover key. Nicolas Petit (1732-1791) is a famous Parisian cabinetmaker received Master on January 21, 1761. This piece of furniture has been restored and varnished with a tampon.
DIMENSIONS: 1.43m high, 0.98m wide and 0.41m deep. Delivery on estimate.

Dealer

Philippe Cote Antiquités

Antiquaire Généraliste

Tel : 06 07 40 27 64

Mobile : 06 07 40 27 64

35 rue du 8 Mai 1945

Chauffailles 71170