

Edwardian American Sterling Silver Brandy Saucepan Warmer / Pipkin With Turned Wooden Handle

150 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Length : 10 cm

Diameter : 4 cm

Height : 4.8 cm

Description

Early 20th century American sterling silver brandy saucepan warmer. Traditional Georgian design of a plain round baluster body, flared rim, a sparrow-beak spout and the original turned wood handle. The body is inscribed "Gail"; the handle is detachable.

36.78 g / 1.18 t oz silver weight

4.8 cm tall

4 cm base diameter

10 cm across with handle

Made in USA, c. 1910's.

Great antique condition. Light scuffing commensurate with age and use, very small ding

Dealer

Gillers Antiques

Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor

Mobile : +44 7738009924

Buntingford SG9 0PY

near base.