Description

Superb embossed copper mirror, dating from the mid-19th century, inspired by the Louis XIV style. This very good quality mirror is a true collector's item, combining refinement and meticulous details. The frame, decorated with relief motifs, presents mythological figures and finely chiseled floral ornaments, typical of the classic Louis XIV aesthetic. The oval mirror is framed by a sumptuous decorative composition, including putti and foliage motifs, giving the whole thing a majestic and elegant look. The copper work is exceptional, revealing an original brown patina, which highlights the richness and depth of the reliefs. This rare item is ideal for antique enthusiasts and collectors looking for a unique decorative piece that is both elegant and steeped in history. Dimensions: Height:
