Description

Magnificent Louis XIV carved solid oak wardrobe. This model with drawers is entirely original, the patina is light and nuanced. The sides are mounted with 3 flat strip panels, the front uprights are rounded and end with miche feet. The front is mounted with double symmetry, the doors are on flat strips. The entrances and pins are in bronze, the locks are of the "skeleton" type with openwork mechanism (reserved for quality furniture). The front is richly chiseled and molded, the high crosspiece is richly flowered, dated and monogrammed. Exceptional wardrobe
