Description

Crystal and silver-plated bronze ice jug carafe Napoleon III period 19th century. Very beautiful object reflecting the luxury of the Napoleon III years expressed in particular in the art of the table. Ewer remarkable for the work of the crystal by the master glassmaker as well as by the goldsmith Victor Saglier who worked for very beautiful frames for the house Daum and Gallé. Note the excellent condition of the crystal body as well as that of the ice reservoir. Very beautiful object to place on a beautiful table as on a beautiful piece of furniture in decoration. Possibility of sending in France and around the world by secure and insured package. Invoice and certificate provided.
