Description

This antique pair of uniquely shaped, hand-painted porcelain plates comes from Von Schierholz Porzellan Manufaktur Plaue, a distinguished German porcelain manufacturer. The plates are adorned with floral and gold patterns; one features a wide gilt edge, while the other does not. At the center, each plate showcases skillfully drawn mythological scenes inspired by the artworks of the renowned neoclassical artist Angelica Kauffmann (1741-1807), who was celebrated for her portraiture and historical paintings and was one of the first female members of the Royal Academy of Arts in London in 1768.The plates bear the Schierholz company's mark on their square base, indicating their creation in 1875, with patterns numbered 29 and 125.
