Description

Nice and interesting vase decorated with cherries in applications by Daum, circa 1922. Piece for amateurs and collectors, this rare vase with applications is a very beautiful work of glasswork with this bubbled glass decorated with orange cherries in applications, hot-laid with a fine glass wire starting from a ring at the base of the neck. The whole is enhanced with a rotating thread at the base and one on the lip of the neck. Last piece sold, in the room at 1000 euros at the hammer, or more than 1250 net buyer (see last photo). 18 cm high, perfect condition, no defect, only on the glass wire, well signed and referenced. Real little art-deco gem, rare model with rare glassmaking techniques! Very original!
