Description

We present these four sumptuous boat stools, which are said to come from the luxury liner that belonged to Aristotle ONASSIS, a Greek billionaire shipowner, who married the widow of President Kennedy assassinated in Dallas, Jackie. These four stools are made of mahogany and brass and they have a line of great elegance, a thick swivel seat and a wide circular base in mahogany, reinforced with brass. They are in impeccable condition. (E24) Ref. YE 150
