Description

Amusing table at support height called "mange-dehaut" to enjoy a coffee, tea, breakfast etc ... The circular top is in solid oak and pleasantly molded on its perimeter in "bec de corbin". It rests on a central shaft with fluted and ringed decoration, finished with a tripod base in cast iron nicely worked. The top has some light scratches due to its use, giving it charm and authenticity (see last photo). This bistro table can also be used as a pedestal table, plant stand etc ... Beautiful manufacture from the mid-20th century
Dimensions: height 115 cm diameter 60 cm
