

Neoclassical Vase - Jacques Saly - Manufacture De Derby - Circa 1785.

29 000 EUR

Signature : Jacques Saly

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Ornamental vase representative of the birth of the neoclassical style of the 18th century, being the realization of an engraving by Jacques Saly (1717-1776) by the porcelain factory of Derby in England from 1773 to 1790. Two examples are known, one at the Victoria and Albert Museum, the other at the Indianapolis Museum. Vase in three parts with support and cover, decorated with rose and glaze covered with applied putti, marine animals, festoons and sphinxes in biscuit. In soft porcelain, cast, painted in pink and gilded enamel, with unglazed biscuit parts. Marked by incision in the material at the base of the central part N 19. Height 41 cm Width 21.5 cm at the base. See:

<http://m.vam.ac.uk/collections/item/O8091/vase-s-tand-and-saly-jacques-francois/> Derby Porcelain

Dealer

Collection

Collection

Mobile : 0032475266745

Mons 7000

Factory