Description

China, 1930s/1950s, very pretty statuette in green hard stone, possibly jade, depicting a Kwan Yin, goddess of mercy, represented standing on a hard stone base in shades of brown. She holds the lustral water vase in her right hand and in her left hand a fly swatter falling on the back of her shoulder. The head is slightly inclined forward, reflecting a meditative state. Sculpture of beautiful quality and great finesse. Height 15.6 cm. The scale witness in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a well-known brand.
