Description

Aubusson tapestry made of wool and silk, H.cm (protected perimeter of a historic monument) This very fine Aubusson tapestry presents two main themes: a pastoral scene and a gallant scene. In the center, a shepherdess and a shepherd agree to an amorous stop, surrounded by a sheep on the left and lush and colorful vegetation. The gilded frame of the carved wooden border adds an elegant and harmonious frame. The bright polychromy and the remarkable quality of the silk give this piece an exceptional freshness and conservation. This 19th century work testifies to the know-how of Aubusson and is in excellent condition. Dimensions: Height: 129 cm x Width: 188 cm
