Description

White and gold opaline night set including a carafe with stopper and a stemmed glass on its circular tray. These neo-Gothic style opalines date from the 1830s, that is to say from the period extending from the end of the reign of Charles X to the beginning of the reign of Louis-Philippe. They are representative of the fashion of the time of a return to the Middle Ages. No chips, no cracks on the object. Some wear to the gilding visible in the photos. Careful packaging. Possibility of sending: France / International. *We always answer you fairly quickly and thank you for remembering to check your junk mail. Our email address is: antiquitesmm@gmail.com *If you would like to see this object or others, we will be happy to welcome you to our gallery in Lyon, France.
