Description

Magnificent 19th century model called the Troubadour Musician, 19th century, in matte and shiny gilded chiseled bronze, composed of a lute player with Renaissance clothes and a feather headdress. The circular dial is the movement incorporated into the subject, with Roman numerals for the hours and railways for the minutes. It rests on a very beautiful trapezoidal base. The whole rests on feet in a leafy scroll and cornucopia. Beautiful gilding despite some wear. The clock needs to be revised. Height 43cm 33 x 12 cm
