Description

Superb large painting in the post-impressionism movement representing an enclosed port with a multitude of sailboats, boats and other skiffs. Very beautiful technique of the painter alternating large large flat areas in tasks to create material and texture with more fluid movements to style the movement of clouds in the sky or the wind in the flags. On the left, an oblique work to stylize the characters and the perspective. This is a true work of art, very well done in very precise codes. Signé du peintre Louis Cazals (1912-1995) et daté 61 pour 1961.. Either way, it is a very beautiful painting that exudes strength and softness at the same time. Original frame in carved and lacquered wood known as Montparnasse. Some very slight lack of pictorial layer. Delivery in wooden box, 100 euros in
