Description

The national estate of Saint-Cloud has never ceased to inspire artists. With its clear lines and open perspectives, this French garden has seen the most famous figures in the history of France and the most colorful stroll through its paths! In the 19th and 20th centuries, painters set up their easels there and among them was Simone Louvet. This artist was one of the registered artists at the Salon de l'Union des Femmes Peintres et Sculpteurs, as evidenced by the label on the back of this painted and framed panel, in very good condition.
