Description

Restoration period chest of drawers circa 1840 in mahogany veneer on oak with 4 drawers, one of which is a plinth.

The front of the upper part opens and reveals a secretaire lined with leather and drawers decorated with rosewood veneer.

The drawer pull handles are in bronze.

The marble, gray from Sainte-Anne, has the double molding characteristic of the period.

All the elements of this chest of drawers, leather, bronze locks, marble and leather are original.
