

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Fernand Majorel "young Naked Woman" Oil On Canvas Circa 1950

350 EUR

Signature : Fernand Majorel

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Description

Fernand Majorel "Young Naked Woman", pretty brunette with a sweet smile, oil on canvas circa 1950. Good condition, signed top right, studio stamp on the back Dim; canvas 25 x 27 cm, frame 41 x 42 cm Fernand Majorel, 1878 -1965, painter from Lyon, he was a student of Bonardel and Morizet at the Ecole des Beaux-Arts in Paris. He is known for his nudes and landscapes, especially between the two wars. He also produced some rare bronzes and bas-reliefs. Fernand Majorel was a versatile artist, recognized for his work as a painter and sculptor. He also worked as a cabinetmaker and furniture designer. He explored different artistic styles, ranging from cubism to fauvism, including abstract art. The artist mainly worked on nudes and landscapes, especially from the interwar period. He is known for his oil

Dealer

Fourrel de Frettes

Antiquites de le Breche, Bazas 33430

Mobile : 06 07 34 10 82

7 rue Théophile Serviere, Bazas 33430

Bazas 33430

painting technique, which he used to create bright, expressionist canvases. Some of Fernand Majorel's works are exhibited in museums, attesting to the recognition of his artistic talent. The Musée des Beaux-Arts de Lyon owns one of his works, an oil on canvas entitled "Place David à Lyon". This painting depicts a view of the city of Lyon in the 1930s. It is considered one of the most remarkable examples of Lyonnaise painting of the time. The Lyonnais artist left an important artistic legacy, which continues to inspire and fascinate art lovers to this day. Bibliography: "La peinture lyonnaise au XIXème siècle", Elisabeth Hardouin-Fugier and Etienne Grafe. Les éditions de l'Amateur 1995, p. 304. Oil on canvas, signed upper right, studio stamp on the back