Description

Oil on canvas by Jean Baconnais representing a bouquet of flowers in a vase, contrasts with a faded white dahlia fallen on the table, impressionist touch. Jean Baconnais has received many distinctions, medalist of arts and letters of Paris in 1997. Baconnais, artist Baulois, very inspired by Brittany, is often presented as the "painter of light and the outdoors". A self-taught artist who has always loved drawing and painting, from a young age His source of inspiration has evolved, going from landscapes to flowers, to still lifes. A rich palette of colors where the play of values is essential, in a material with vigorous impastos and solar touches, give a great charm to his solidly constructed compositions in which the drawing gives body to the work. The lines, the volumes, the shadows and the lights come from a
